Gratitude Becomes Generosity - What do we do with what we have been given?

Last month, I invited us to practice gratitude by slowing down and noticing the small blessings that surround us each day. I hope that practice gave you opportunities to pause, notice, and give thanks for the ordinary gifts of life.

As we enter November, the month of Thanksgiving, I find myself wondering: What happens when gratitude moves beyond something we feel and becomes something we do?

As I have been preparing to turn our focus toward stewardship, I am struck by how we can take that practice of gratitude one small step further. When we notice the blessings in our lives, both big and small, we begin to see them as gifts rather than simply possessions or things we can take for granted. We become more attentive to the many ways we have been blessed, often in ways we might otherwise overlook.

Office Hours: Please call the church office before dropping by. 321-951-0166

We often talk about stewardship in terms of our time, talents, and treasures. But I would like us to expand that understanding this month. Stewardship is also about how we respond to God and to all that we have been given. Stewardship becomes a response to God's generosity rather than an obligation.

When we recognize that our lives are filled with gifts, our response can be one of generosity. We can offer back some of what we have received—not because we are required to, but because gratitude moves us to respond.

So, this month, I invite you to reflect on the ways you respond to God's generosity. Where can you offer your time? Where can you share your talents? What resources can you use to support God's work and the people around you?

May our stewardship be an expression of gratitude - a way of offering back our time, talent, and treasure in thanksgiving for the many gifts we have received. Gratitude becomes generosity when we take what we have noticed and allow it to shape what we do.

- Pastor Amy

A Stewardship Moment

Do you like to work crossword puzzles like I do?

Well, the clue is: Nov. Holiday: 2 words. Yes, it is Thanksgiving. It may only be one word, but I always think of it as two words. We give Thanks to the Lord for all that He has given us. And there is much joy in Giving.

As good stewards, we should give with a gracious and joyful heart. In fact, Thanks-Giving should be a daily thing, not a once-a-year event. I personally give thanks for being a child of God and the promise of salvation and eternal life. All other things are a bonus. Giving is easy since all things – come from God – our time, talent, and treasures. It's like spending someone else's time, talent, and treasure. As we move into the end of the year, think what your pledge will be for 2027.

Property Management Team

In addition to routine property and building upkeep, here are some recent improvements that our Property Management Team has made to JOY:

- Improved lighting in conference room
- Improved lighting in shed
- Resurfaced a table in the fellowship rooms
- Refinished some door knobs (more to come)

As soon as the demands of the summer months ease off, we plan to work on more interior repairs and improvements.

If you are good with either outside work or inside work, we could use your help. We meet at church each Friday at 8:00-8:30 a.m. and work about three hours. Our work outside includes mowing, trimming, exterior painting, changing light bulbs as needed and many other things. Our work inside includes painting, fixing existing systems, installing new things, and much more. If you have skills in anything about keeping up a residence, you probably have skills that your church could use as well.

If you see something in need of repair or improvement, please let us know.

A special thanks to our regulars who have come out faithfully throughout this past summer and the early weeks of fall.

One final note: Our memorial brick supplier stopped making the bricks; so, we've been working with the Men of JOY to find a new source. Our hope is to line up the new supplier and obtain memorial bricks that have been ordered but not yet fulfilled before the end of this year. We're starting to get samples in, and the goal is to closely match what we already have in the Memorial Garden.

Property Management Team Leader

Session 3: Proclaiming resurrection in hope - Scripture: John 20:1–18

Mary Magdalene’s journey transitions from that of a grieving friend to the first preacher of the good news, after she shows up at the empty tomb and encounters the risen Jesus. Her story declares that women are entrusted to carry resurrection hope into a hurting world. This session encourages participants to recognize their own call to bear witness and to proclaim hope in Christ.
