Recap #1: There is a great tree within you...

Then he showed me a vision in which I saw a great tree that seemed to reach unto the heavens; and as I saw these things, he said, 'The roots of this tree are in the Earth, which is your body. The trunk extends upward through the five regions of humanity to the crown, which is the kingdom of the spirit.'

The 5th bough: Clarity and Truth

*Only [...] when you have rejected the deceiver, can you [...] attain the fifth bough and the fruit [...]. Only then you will know the clarity and truth of your soul and, knowing yourself for the first time, understand that you are a child of the living spirit. [...]
I realized that I could no longer hear the voice of the world, as all had become as silence.*

❖ Do you recognize anything similar to these experiences from your own life?

How did you manage to get there?

What has changed thereafter?

❖ In which field of your life would you like to make a comparable enlightening experience?

Thoughts:

Staying aware of the tree of life inside her enabled Magdalene to untangle from the voices of the world.

Silence follows after confronting with the voices of the world, not by silencing them.

Clarity about herself opens a new chapter of the vision shifting the focus towards inner experience

The 6th bough: Power and Healing

Then in the light above, I saw the sixth bough [...]. When you truly have eaten of the fruit of the clarity and truth of yourself, then could you partake of the fruit of power and healing, the power to heal your own soul [...].

- ❖ This is the first time when healing shows up in the vision. Not earlier. How do you think about that?
- ❖ Can you conceive any opportunities for healing which could be enabled by the spiritual path from bough #1 to #5?

Wondering...

What if one considered the Magdalene's path as a healing tool? How would this affect the course of diseases we know? Could there be any connection to lifestyle diseases?

The 7th and the 8th bough: The fruits of the Spirit

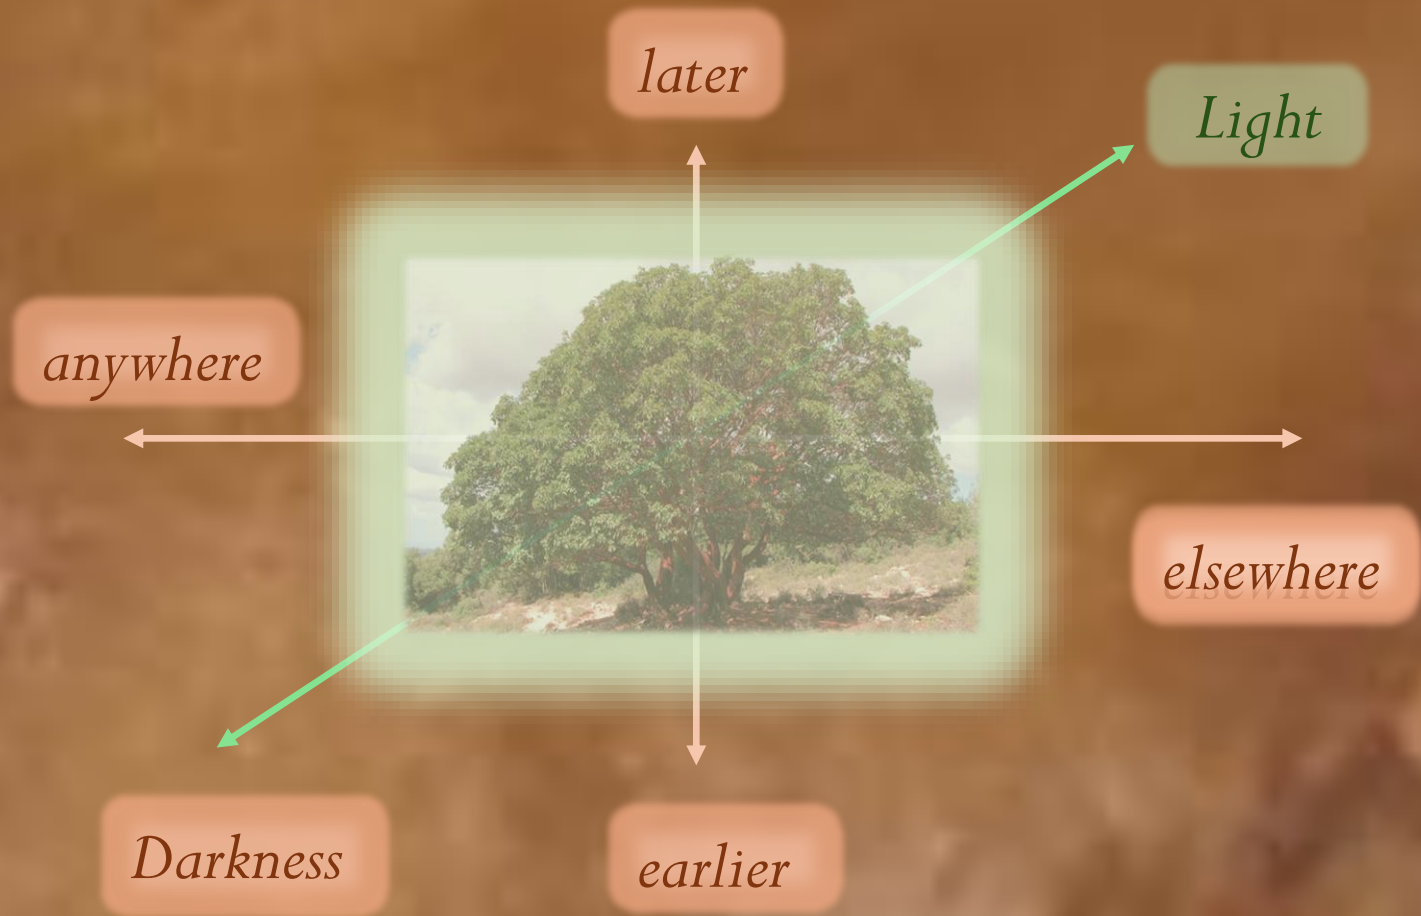

And I saw my soul, now free of all darkness, ascend again to be filled with the light and goodness that is the Spirit. And I was filled with a fierce joy as my soul turned to fire and flew upwards in the flames from whence my master showed me the eighth and final bough, upon which burned the fruit of the grace and beauty of the Spirit.

Untangling from dark energies, awareness of divine connectedness, and inner healing are not the goals, but the foundation of any spiritual community.

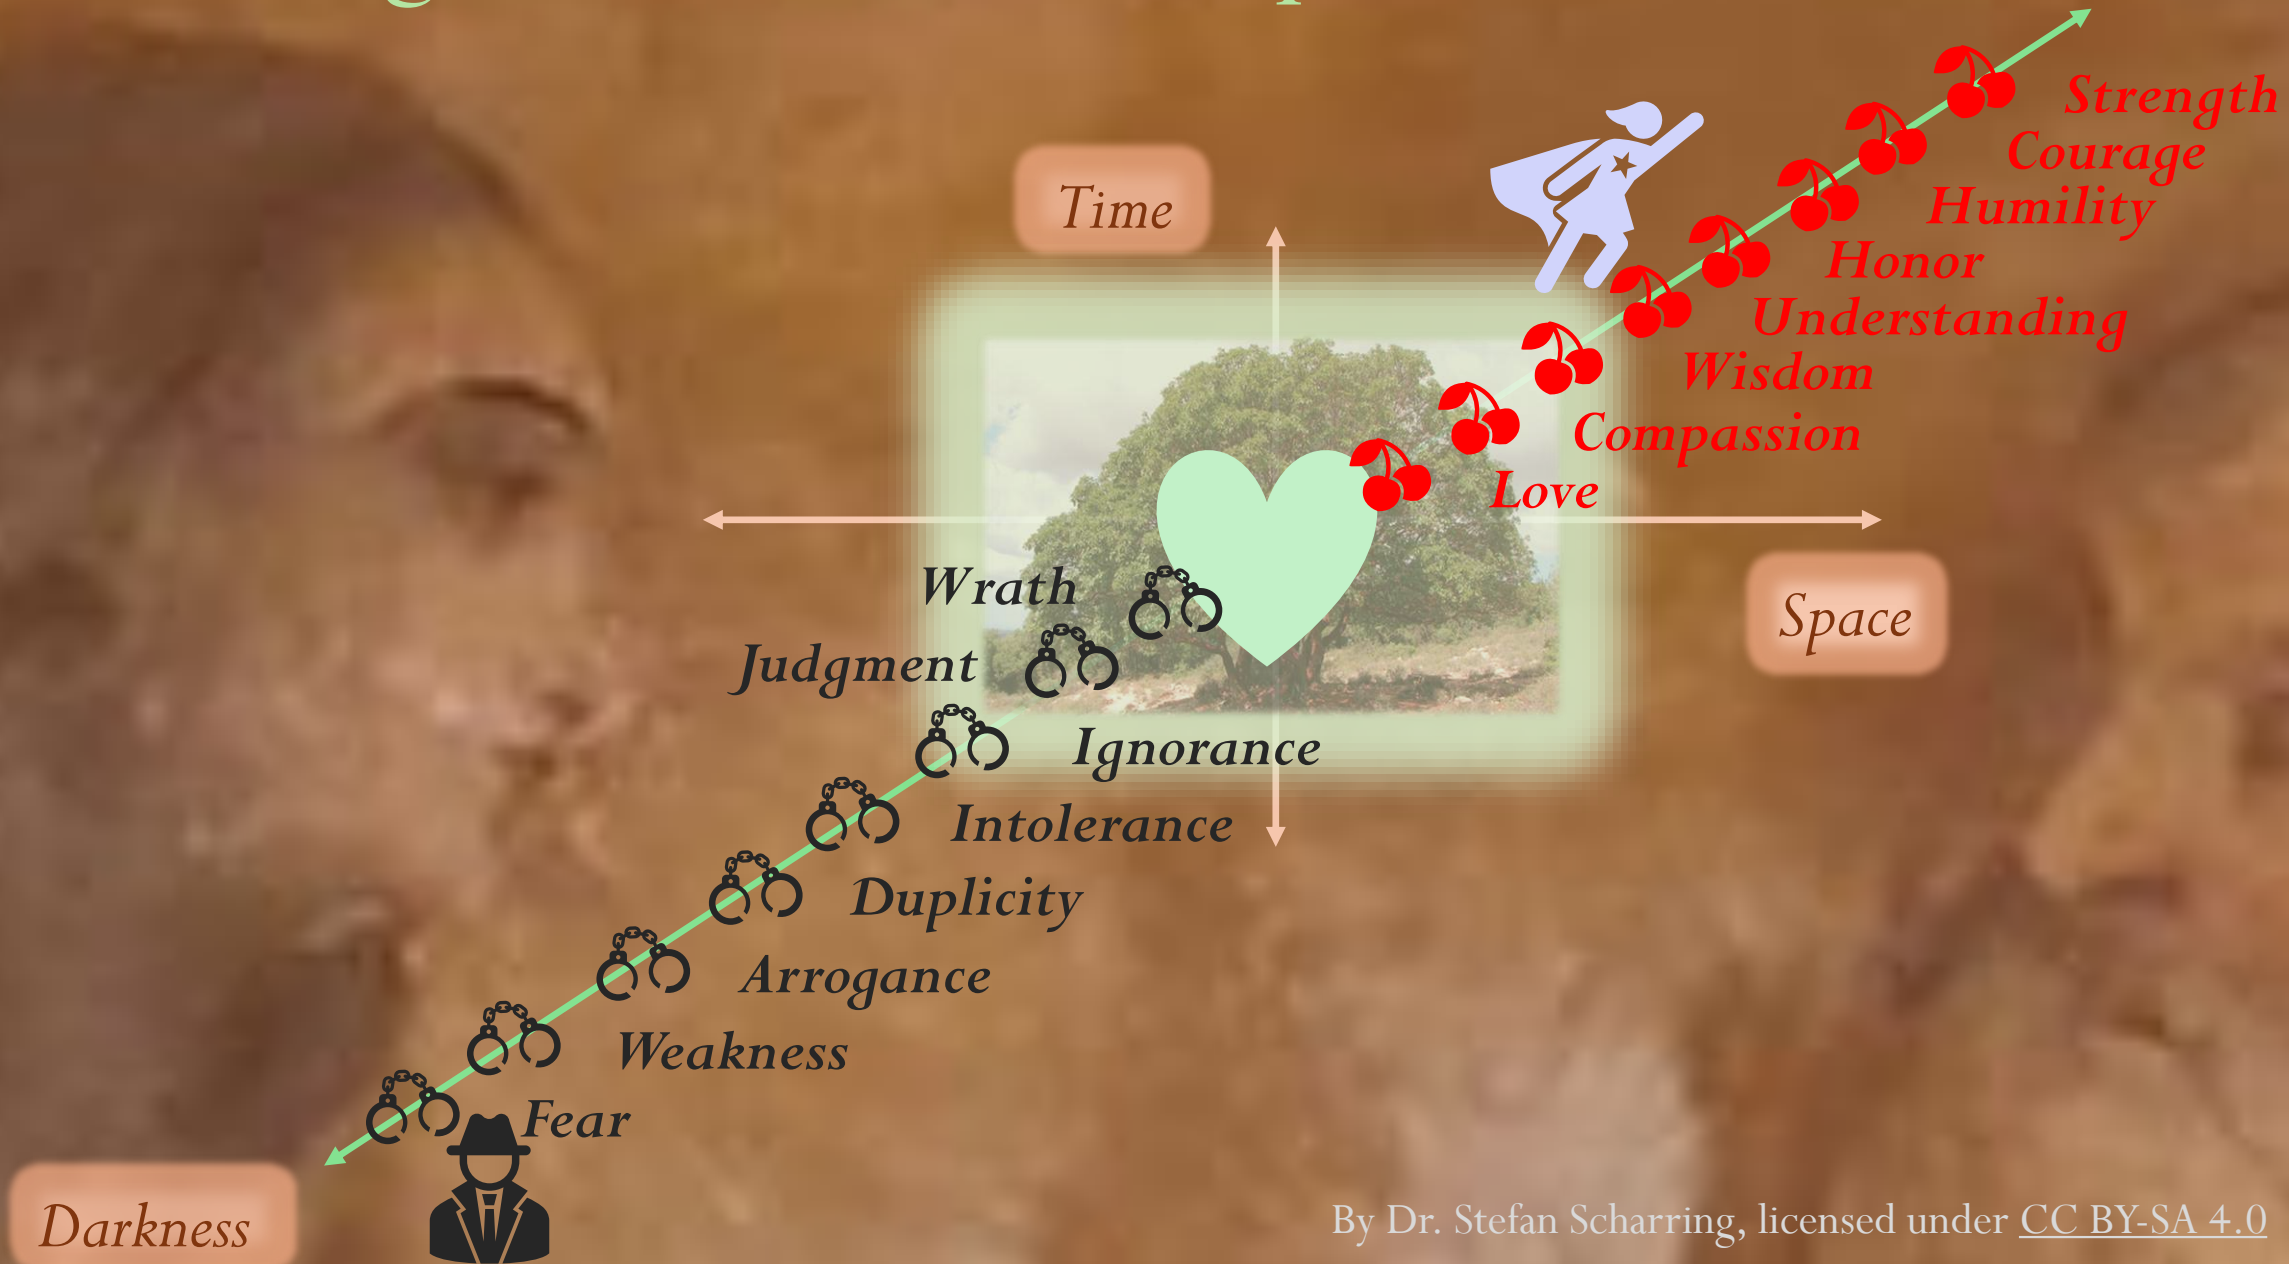

Having said that, let us reflect about our experiences we have made with church...
