
OPPRESSIVE BOSSES

A person who is a boss VOID of wisdom is a hazard to its staff members. They can be highly educated, articulate, intellectual and experienced. However, if they LACK wisdom it will be hard for you to work under them.

Bosses who are void of wisdom become OPPRESSORS. Proverbs 28:16 says, "A ruler without wisdom will be cruel, but the one who refuses to take dishonest money will rule a long time." NCV

A HORRIBLE
BOSS MAKES YOU WANT TO
OPPORTUNITY.

An oppressor is someone who does NOT have compassion. They do NOT manage their staff. They put ungodly pressure on them. They overwhelm them with work. They burden them with cruel and unjust treatment.

These people tempt you to leave a good situation because they are too much to bear. If you are in this situation you NEED to call on King Jesus and ask Him how to handle these types of people. The only way an oppressor can stop being an oppressor is if they get WISDOM.

Wisdom will teach them how to motivate and lead their staff without giving them the heavy burdens to bear.

PRAY for your bosses who are VOID of wisdom. Your prayers can allow God to give them revelation so they will treat you fairly and be a blessing to your life. Pray that they get vision so a blind person won't lead you. Your prayers can break chains. BREAK the chains of your oppressive boss.

God commanded you to pray for your leaders. Why? It's for your benefit. It's for your mental health. It's for your sanity. A boss who is NOT an oppressor will help you, NOT hurt you.
