
LISTEN TO TEMPTATION

You cannot avoid temptation. You cannot stop temptation. You should not submit to temptation. However, you should LISTEN to temptation. Temptation reveals your vulnerability. It exposes your weaknesses. It highlights the evilness YOU crave for.

Listening to temptation can teach you more than you think. What you do not know about yourself, temptation will show you. The side you do not like about yourself, temptation forces you to examine it.

Temptation forces you to address the hidden parts
within yourself.
-F.H.

Being tempted is not evil. Being tempted EXPOSES evilness. God allows us to be tempted for the purpose of EXAMINING ourselves.

1st Corinthians 10:13 says, "The only temptation that has come to you is that which everyone has. But you can trust God, who will not permit you to be tempted more than you can stand. But when you are tempted, he will also give you a way to escape so that you will be able to stand it." NCV.

The sins you hide are the sins that will destroy you. Temptation propels you to address the secrets you want buried. You can only be tempted by what you DESIRE. If the need for power entices you, the enemy will tempt you with attaining positions of power VOID of God. If you have a desire for sex the enemy will cross your paths with individuals who will stimulate your sex craving.

LISTEN to your temptations! Listening will help you identify the hidden sins you need to address and conquer. When you can conquer what is hidden, NOTHING can hold you back from achieving your maximum potential.
