

The LIE of honoring the birth of Jesus at Christmas is Abomination to GOD.

*"Ye are they that justify yourselves before men; but God knows your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God."
(Luke 16:15)*

From the words of the Holy Spirit (the Bible), we should have no trouble understanding that whatever is very popular in the world is not of GOD.

It takes only a few minutes to research the origins of Christmas to see that the holiday existed far before Jesus' birth & is rooted in pagan practices.

Can Christians fool GOD by putting a couple coats of religious paint on an old wicked pagan practice? Can they involve their families in pagan traditions, which GOD forbids as idolatry, & stand justified before a Holy God? Is it all as "harmless" as everyone wants to portray? Can any Christian be so naïve to think that IDOLATRY or IDOLATROUS practices aren't that big of a deal with the God who became a man & had to DIE for those SINS of IDOLATRY?

Christians can't follow the masses blindly, nor can they copy idolatrous feasts.

Jeremiah 10:2-4 "Thus saith the Lord, LEARN NOT the way of the heathen; and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven. For the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people ARE VAIN. For one cuts a tree out of the forest. The work of the hands of the workman with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold. They fasten it with nails and with hammers that it moves not."

Creating new lies to associate Jesus w/Dec. 25th, the birthday of many pagan solar deities, is blasphemous. (saturnalia, & others)

Rather, it is the duty of Christians to expose falsehoods in the church.

The Bible states that there is no fellowship between light & darkness OR Jesus & idols. (2 Cor 6:14-18)

"Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil" (Exodus 23:2)

"If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him" (1 John 2:15)

*"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them."
(Ephesians 5:11)*

What should Christians teach their children? Truth or lies? Conformity to the world or to reject idolatrous worldly things? (Rom 12:2)

The TRUTH about the "Christmas Story":

Jesus was not born on December 25th.

The Wise Men did not come to His birth; nor can we say in fact that there were only three.

He was not born in a wooden stable or similar structure. (most likely a cave)

There was no drummer boy present.

The very foundation of the Christmas holiday is based on numerous LIES.

(and we're not even discussing the Satan Claus aspect in this study)

Is Jesus the originator of this “holy-day”? Can Jesus really be the “reason for the season”? Consider that Jesus condemned those who teach LIES:

John 8:44 - "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a LIAR and the father of it."

Jesus said He was the TRUTH. (John 14:6)

If satan is the father of LIES, and the Christmas holiday is loaded with all kinds of LIES, who is the real author of this 'holy-day'?

"But the hour comes, & now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit & in truth: for the Father seeks such to worship Him. GOD is a Spirit: & they that worship Him MUST worship Him in spirit & in TRUTH. (John 4:23-24)

*“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. But outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.”
Revelation 22:14&15*

If a Christian desires to practice a lie, just celebrate Christmas.

Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men..... 2 Corinthians 5:11
