August was the final competition for Spurs N' Lace for the 2026 season.

The WSEDTA competition took place at Rancho Murrieta's Equestrian Center.

We're incredibly proud of our riders, with our Novice team taking 1st place and our Mixed team bringing home 2nd!

The hard work, teamwork, and dedication these riders have put in truly showed in the arena.

One of the highlights of the weekend was getting to watch the Drill Masters' impromptu drill and seeing some familiar Spurs N' Lace faces out there made it even more special!

Our Drill Master Ben Gibbons and Captain Tori Beeck joined seasoned riders Kenzie Perdue and Camila Torres for an exciting performance the team loved watching.

Congratulations to all of our riders on a fantastic competition!

We're proud of the way Spurs N' Lace represented both in and out of the arena.

SJVR's Mounted Shooting Practice is a great opportunity for riders of all experience levels to sharpen their skills, build confidence, and enjoy time with fellow horse enthusiasts in a fun and supportive environment.

Practices are held at SJVR on the 3rd Sunday of each month from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM and are led by Lisa Botelho-Sima, who brings a wealth of knowledge and encouragement to every session.

Whether you're new to mounted shooting or looking to fine-tune your performance, these practices offer a welcoming place to learn and grow.

Participants are encouraged to bring a lunch and stay after practice to relax, socialize, and enjoy the camaraderie that makes the mounted shooting community so special. The club is also currently working out the details for a Cleaner Shooter Match that will be hosted later this season, giving riders another exciting opportunity to compete and have fun.
